

Human rights squares

WALK AND TALK

Instructions

- Using the other members of the group as information sources, name an example for as many of the statements as you can and write your answer in the square.
- Each answer should come from a different person, who must write their initials in that square.
- Stop when time is called.

A human right	A country where human rights are violated	A document that proclaims human rights	A group in this country that wants to deny rights to others	A country where people are denied their rights because of their race or ethnicity
An organisation in this country that fights for human rights	A film about rights	An example of a human rights violation in this country	A right your parents had/have that you do not	The type of human rights violation that most disturbs you
A novel about rights	A right sometimes denied to women	A right that all children should have	A country where people are denied their rights because of their religious identity	A human right not yet achieved by everyone in this country
A place where people claim the right to establish a nation or homeland	A right of yours that is respected	Someone who is a defender of human rights	A singer who sings about rights	An example of human rights progress in this country

Source

The Human Rights Education Toolbox (2012), The Danish Institute of Human Rights.